TOLL-FREE NUMBER SET UP FOR MONTICELLO PROJECTS

(Grand Junction, Colorado) - The U.S. Department of Energy Grand Junction Projects Office (GJPO) has established a toll-free number connecting Utah residents directly with the GJPO's Public Affairs Officer, Ms. Audrey Berry. The number is 1-800-269-7145.

Citizens with any questions, comments or concerns about the environmental cleanup work being done in Monticello, Utah may call Ms. Berry at the toll-free number. The normal office hours at the Colorado office are from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. If Ms. Berry is unable to answer the phone, the caller will be connected with the DOE's phone mail system which will permit the leaving of a detailed recorded message. Ms. Berry will return the call as soon as possible.

Citizens are also reminded and invited to make use of the Information Repositories containing current information, technical reports, and reference documents for all of the Monticello projects. The Administrative Records and Information Repositories are located in the RUST Geotech Offices at 95 1/2 South Main, Monticello, Utah, 84535. The Office number in Monticello is (801) 587-2615. The RUST Geotech Construction Project Manager is John Pepin.
